TOWER 1996

Manhattanville College
2900 Purchase St.

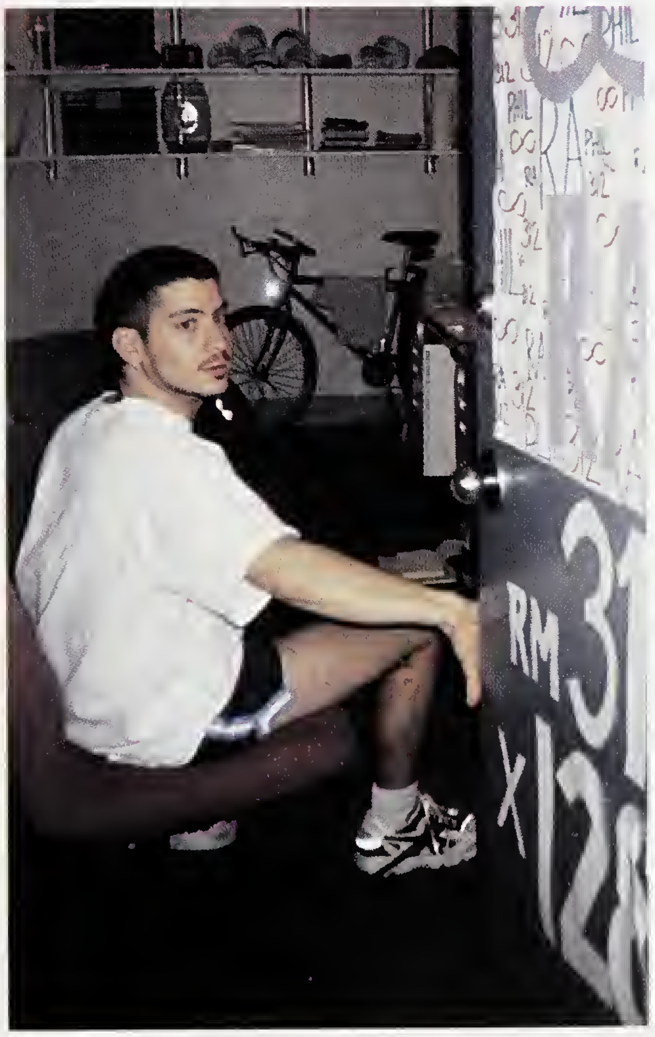
You're not going anywhere.

If you hang out together long enough, you begin to look alike.

Please take our picture.

I'm off duty. Go ask Ken.

Different roads led us to Manhattanville four years ago. Each of us brought distinct ideas and perceptions, some of which would endure, some of which would evolve and grow. We came together as a community, learning about each other, as well as ourselves. Manhattanville offers to us many opportunities to find out who we are, each of us choosing our own path to knowledge. Though we travel a common road to the castle, there are different twists and turns to follow. The road has not ended here, with graduation — we are only changing directions.



Who will steal Greg Brady's heart?

At Manhattanville, we sleep in our clothes.

Do you have reservations?

Should I be an NFL punter or a Rockette?

CROSSROADS TO COMMUNITY

The first thing you notice onto Manhattanville's campus is the castle. And then, you notice all the paths that wind around the quad, paths to the castle, away from the castle, to and from, Brownson, Founders, Spellman, the Library, Dammann, Tenney, and Benziger. All of these paths intertwine, like city side walks — but they are not crowded; they are free. Free of clutter. Free of debris. Free of traffic lights and do and do not walk signals. In the four years we are here, we walk these paths of concrete and we cement relationships made on the journey. It is a journey of intertwining paths that weaves together hopes, dreams, promises, and glimpses of tomorrow.

FRESHMAN YEAR

Renaissance — what did that mean?
Who are these people in purple shirts?
Will I ever learn my way around Spellman?

The first day at M'Ville was both exciting and frightening. We were meeting new people and adjusting to college. After a few short days, we were easily finding our way, not only to Brownson, but also to lasting relationships. Looking back, the first year at M'Ville was one of the best. Late night chats with our roommate, the first cafeteria experience, and the memories of fun times will not be forgotten.

Did we ever really look like this???????

DORM LIFE

Remember? It was raining, it always rains on check in day. Wet and tired. Which way to Spellman ###? The beginning of four years of living in M'ville's dorms (oops, residence halls). Befriending the one you wanted to kiss when you first saw him/her moving in right down the hall. Learning what a dry dorm is. No one to tell you when to go to bed, or when to get up. Excuse me, do you have a deck of cards? Time for room inspection — remember to close your closet doors. Who pulled the fire alarm??? I have class at 9:30 — AHHHH. Yes, I remember hall damages well. What did ever happen to my room deposit?

Does anybody have any quarters?

Get off my back!!

Amy proves her mother wrong —she really can vacuum.

THE PUB

The Legacy, better known as "the pub," is just one of the many changes in direction that we have witnessed at Manhattanville. It symbolizes a vision of unity . . . a gathering place for all who pass through its doors . . . a cozy niche for faculty and students to share ideas on a Friday night . . . music, munchies, and memories . . . a spot to unwind and hang out. We leave this young legacy for others to make their own memories, for within these walls, anything is possible. And the best is yet to come.

Hey, where did everybody go?

DJ Adrian takes a break to take a spin with Sarah.

Jorge, I think I love you.

Denise shows her pearly whites.

QUAD LIFE

Frisbee tosses, football passes, mini soccer games, beach chairs and blankets, and the occasional book can all be seen on the quad when the days aren't too chilly. When the days are brisk, rainy, or snowy, complaints of walking to class or to the library can be heard; the quad is virtually deserted. As the setting for weekend relaxing, goofing off, and spring barbeques, the quad is a major social component of student life, particularly one spring weekend every year — Quad Jam. People gather to eat, drink, and play, to listen to the tunes of live bands, to hang upside down on a velcro wall, and to be plain ol' silly.

Marisol and Jorge master the art of quad procrastination.

Can Pat and Adrian get any luckier?

Hey! Wait up for me!!

Denise and Rich sit back and enjoy the sounds of Quad Jam Day.

A sunny day on the quad is perfect for lying around with friends.

FORMALS

What should I wear . . . How should I do my hair . . . What's taking him/her/them so damn long to get there . . . not like they need directions . . . There's a party to go to . . . over there . . . before you go to the party . . . over here . . . then after the party . . . over here . . . someone else has a party . . . over there! This could only happen twice a year! Something to get all decked out for . . . Show your true style . . . You Look Good! Boys looking good! Girls looking good! music . . . dancing (maybe) . . . not your average watery pasta FLIK food! (Nobody ever really sees those finger foods) . . . But who cares! It would probably make your breath stink and you're gettin' smooched tonight! Know why???? Because tonight is Formal Night!!!!

Hugs . . .

All these guys in ties at the same time —it must be a formal.

Say cheese . . . again!

Dahling . . . you look marvelous!

200 NIGHTS

It may only be October, but the countdown to graduation has begun! It is never too soon to commence celebrating weeks, months, and years of studying in preparation of entering the ''real world.'' Of course, the hard work has been accompanied by fun, too, which is exactly what 200 Nights is all about for the Class of 1996. A night filled with excitement and anticipation; a night to be with friends; and most prominently, a night without worries about senior theses!

Who would have thought we would need bouncers at the president's cottage?

Courtney dances the night away.

This much excitement at 200 nights . . . Imagine 100 nights.

Merengue!!!

Robin ponders the meaning of life . . . only 200 nights away.

Jen and Rebecca —still as close as ever.

THE PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURATION

The Inauguration was an event that was the dawning of a new era, as we all joined together to officially welcome our tenth president, Richard A. Berman. He brings to us his vision of hope and community that will take the spirit of Manhattanville in the 21st century. The Inauguration was a day that symbolized new feelings of pride and strength . . . we took part in the splendor, celebrated our school, welcomed our new leader, and danced into the night. Our music, art, and athletic achievements were all on display. The result of the hard work and planning that went into this gala: $$$ for the Scholarship Fund and a new feeling that we were back on track!

Freshmen

The first year at Manhattanville is one of the best. It is exciting to meet new people and become a part of the community. Spellman becomes home as you begin your Manhattanville experience. Everyday brings new things and everyday you learn new things about yourself. The first year here is filled with memories you will never forget.

Freshman year; a time to make good friends and create great memories.

COMMANDMENTS

A bit over-dressed for Spellman, aren't we?

Mr. January.

An overzealous hug.

Being a freshman can be rough. You have to kick back and relax sometimes.

Sophomores

Entering our sophomore year as the class of '98 we feel a sense of security and comfort with a year of college life behind us. Excited about "the suite life" of Dammann, we hope to further bond as a class. With important decisions ahead of us, it is time to get serious and get involved on campus, to really make a name for ourselves. No longer the least experienced people on campus, we returned to Manhattanville for a great year.

Juniors

Junior year at Manhattanville is truly a great year. Even though you know you will be saying goodbye to all the seniors in May, the pain is alleviated because you know you still have one last year to hang out together. During this year, portfolio requirements are completed and you finally get to take the classes you want to take. Outsideof the classroom, you treasure the time you have with your friends, relaxing one last year before the having to worry about your thesis, student loans and finding a job.

Seniors

When the class of '96 entered as freshmen we weren't sure what to expect. But as we reach the end we can successfully say that we have made many strides. We have come together as a class and are now completing a chapter in our lives. We have worked hard and taken the right steps to move successfully into the future. As Manhattanville moves in different directions, so do we, the graduating class of 1996. Congratulations to everybody in our class and good luck,
Jeannette Anniccharico

Too much woman for Lateef to handle.

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

We journeyed from far-off places and distant lands to learn and grow from each other. The time we have spent together has evolved into a strong and united class whose diverse directions will bring color and joy to a world that awaits our talents and dreams. We have given each other lessons for living which we will remember as we face the many challenges that our individual journeys bring. We have strengthened each other's soul and prepared one another for our next voyage in life. And as we embark into the unknown, we will remember that anything is possible . . . the opportunities will be ours for the taking . . . we are special . . . we will succeed . . . we can make a difference. Our passion and celebration of life will make an impression on the earth which will last a lifetime. There is so much in our adventures that can be accomplished . . . Let us shape our lives into the best times we can imagine, with our courage, hopes, and dreams — for the journey has just begun.

Sure, she's attractive and she's blowing in my ear but this chicken is fantastic.

NAVIGATING DISTINCT COURSES

As captains to a ship and its crew, the faculty and staff at Manhattanville navigate and direct their students to discover and explore their unique interests, opportunities, and challenges. Whether a student is spending hours in the biology labs researching cells or in the art gallery studying the importance of the perspective of light, there are professors at every turn, offering encouragement and support, reminding us of the destination towards which we are journeying. Although we may encounter stormy weather and rough waters at times, we know that we can count on the wisdom and dedication of the faculty and staff to help us map out our main course, so that no matter how long it takes us to reach our goal, we arrive there with much more knowledge than before our journey began.

You see, this caveman wears a hat just like Waldo. They put him in to throw you off.

MANHATTANVILLE COLLEGE

Richard A. Berman
President

To the Graduating Class of 1996:

Where did the time go? How could it possibly be time to say good-bye to the Class of 1996?

No one told me, when I accepted the presidency of this college, how close I would get to the students . . . and how hard it would be to say good-bye.

I wish you great happiness and success on the road that lies ahead. I truly believe that if I have one over-riding mission here at Manhattanville, it is to prepare each and every one of you for your journey. That is why I talk so much about our values, about establishing a moral center that will guide you in your decisions and help you to meet the challenges you will face for the rest of your life.

Years from now, when you pick up your treasured copy of the Tower and reminisce about your days at Manhattanville, I believe you will look at these values with a fresh perspective. You will better understand the foundation that you received at this college, and how that foundation has shaped your lives.

At Manhattanville, we believe in Academic Excellence; striving to learn more, to never stop learning, to setting the highest possible standards for ourselves . . . and exceeding those standards. We accomplish this through personalized instruction and small classes in which each student is fully engaged.

We believe in the development of the whole person - - body, mind, heart and spirit. We encourage you to take chances, to explore new avenues of expression, follow a passion. We are committed to a personal touch, a high spiritual approach designed to foster self-assurance and self- esteem.

We believe in the establishment of a caring, nurturing environment. Is it too much of a cliche to say that Manhattanville is the place "where every one knows your name?" We are dedicated to bringing compassion to every decision, and sensitivity to every problem - - always based on mutual respect and individual responsibility for one's own conduct and actions.

And, finally, we believe in an extra burden, that special calling to service that compels us to give something of ourselves back to the community. To understand that when we make the world a better place, we also share in the benefits and the joys.

Those are our values. Remember them, they will serve you well.

And, as a final request to each of you, I ask that you always think of Manhattanville as home. Come back, take courses, attend special events, get involved with alumni activities or just stop by to say hi!

We are part of your family. I will miss you. Thanks for giving me so much, and please come back soon!

With Affection,

Richard

Controlling the defense were Fernandez, freshman Jean-Marc Berne, and Mahle, who contributed despite playing through injuries. Stepping into the goalie position was soph omore Michael Bonavita who had an impressive .766 save percentage and a goals against average of 1.9 per game.

To open the season, the Valiants defeated arch-rival NYU 3-2 in overtime for the first time in history. Also memorable was the second place finish in their home tournament, the Valiant Cup, and their first place victory in the Southern Vermont Tournament.

Of first year coach Peter Schacter, captain Lee Mahle said, ''During his first year as head coach of Manhattanville College, Peter Schachter quickly earned the respect of his players on the field and off.''

WOMEN'S SOCCER

The team had a slow start, but progressed into a well-rounded team. We fell short of getting a seat in the ECAC Tournament, finishing 7-8-1. We will miss our two seniors: Dawn Lake and Spencer Schoenig, and appreciate Spencer for getting in goal for us when we needed the help. The Valiants had a great mid-season spree after the slow start, going 7-3-1 over the last 11 games. Sophomore Lib McCaffrey worked tirelessly in midfield finishing with 9 goals and 6 assists. Junior Tara Mackay, Michele Recine, and Stephanie Bliss added their considerable talents, making the team a competitive force to be reckoned with. Without much depth on the bench, coach John Sanchez manipulated the line-up, plugging in freshmen Jamie Rana, Kristie Skudlarek, Rachael Burnett, Sophomore Amy Scognamillo, Juniors Tara Caloia, Claudia Carta, and Gail Shaknaitis, Senior Dawn Lake and moving McCaffrey, Mackay, Bliss, and Recine where needed to answer the challenges posed by their respective opponents. The team seemed to thrive in the rain, defeating Teikyo Post, St. Joseph's and Nyack in various forms of torrential downpours.

FIELD HOCKEY

Though this was a rebuilding year, with the return of one senior, captain Heather Scanlon, three juniors, Rebecca Cohen, Eileen Daly, and Chandra Taylor, and one returning sophomore, Melissa Putnam, the team was quite excited about the addition of 1 sophomore, Justine Zwiefel and seven new freshman, Amy Dolan, Amanda Franco, Joanna Gazzo, Bridget Hughes, Christina Keneally, Heather Miller, and Jilliana Novich.

The team consisted of 13 players, yet missing was one very important position, the goalie. It was Taylor and Keneally who decided to give it a try. Both proved that they were able to be just as effective in the goal as they were on the field. They learned quickly under the confident guidance of Coach Diane Toth and Goalie Coach Suzette Stone. Our strong defensive players Cohen, Daly, Hughes, and Keneally were able to not only take the ball away from the opposing defensive sticks, but to someimes almost score themselves. At the midfield, where the transition of the game takes place, Miller and Scanlon worked very well ogether, setting up the offensive situaions. Up on the front line of attack was Putnam, who with her outstanding scoring poential moved into eighth place on the allime scoring list. Five new players added greater potential to the forward line with Dolan, Franco, Zwiefel, and Novich on the sides and Gazzo next to Putnam in the middle. These new players will be ones to watch in the future, furthering the team's scoring capacity.

The team had a great season despite the number of losses. Everyone had a lot of fun and with the loss of only one senior and the addition of new players, the team can look ahead to a promising new season next fall.

VOLLEYBALL

Completing the year with a first round loss to New Rochelle in the HVWAC, the volleyball team had an overall record of 3-21. Despite this losing record, the 1995 season was highlighted with many individual accomplishments. Four year player and senior captain Gina Bucci had 100 set assists and only 44 receiving errors. Martha Trejos, the other senior captain, led the team with 140 set assists, and will return to the Valiants as a graduate student next year Looking towards a promising season in 1996, the team was young, with six talented freshman: Jaime Kriksciun, Naydu Marmalejo, Tiffany McMaster, Kadie Presley Jessica Vargas, and Elsie Vasquez. Kriksciun came on strong this season, leading the team in kills (85), serve aces (45), solo blocks (47), and block assists (13) McMaster tied her for service aces, also with 45, while Presley was second on the team with 43 blocks and 77 kills. Sophomore Irene Mota, Sandra Orengo, and Noriko Takahara also used this season to fine tune their skills. Mota had 372 digs, ranking her among the national leaders. The volleyball team was further complimented by the play of two juniors: Joanne Harris and Taeko Takahara. Under the leadership of head coach Felicita Saldana and assistant coach Iris Alonso, both in their second season with the Valiants, the team was able to grow and improve throughout the season.

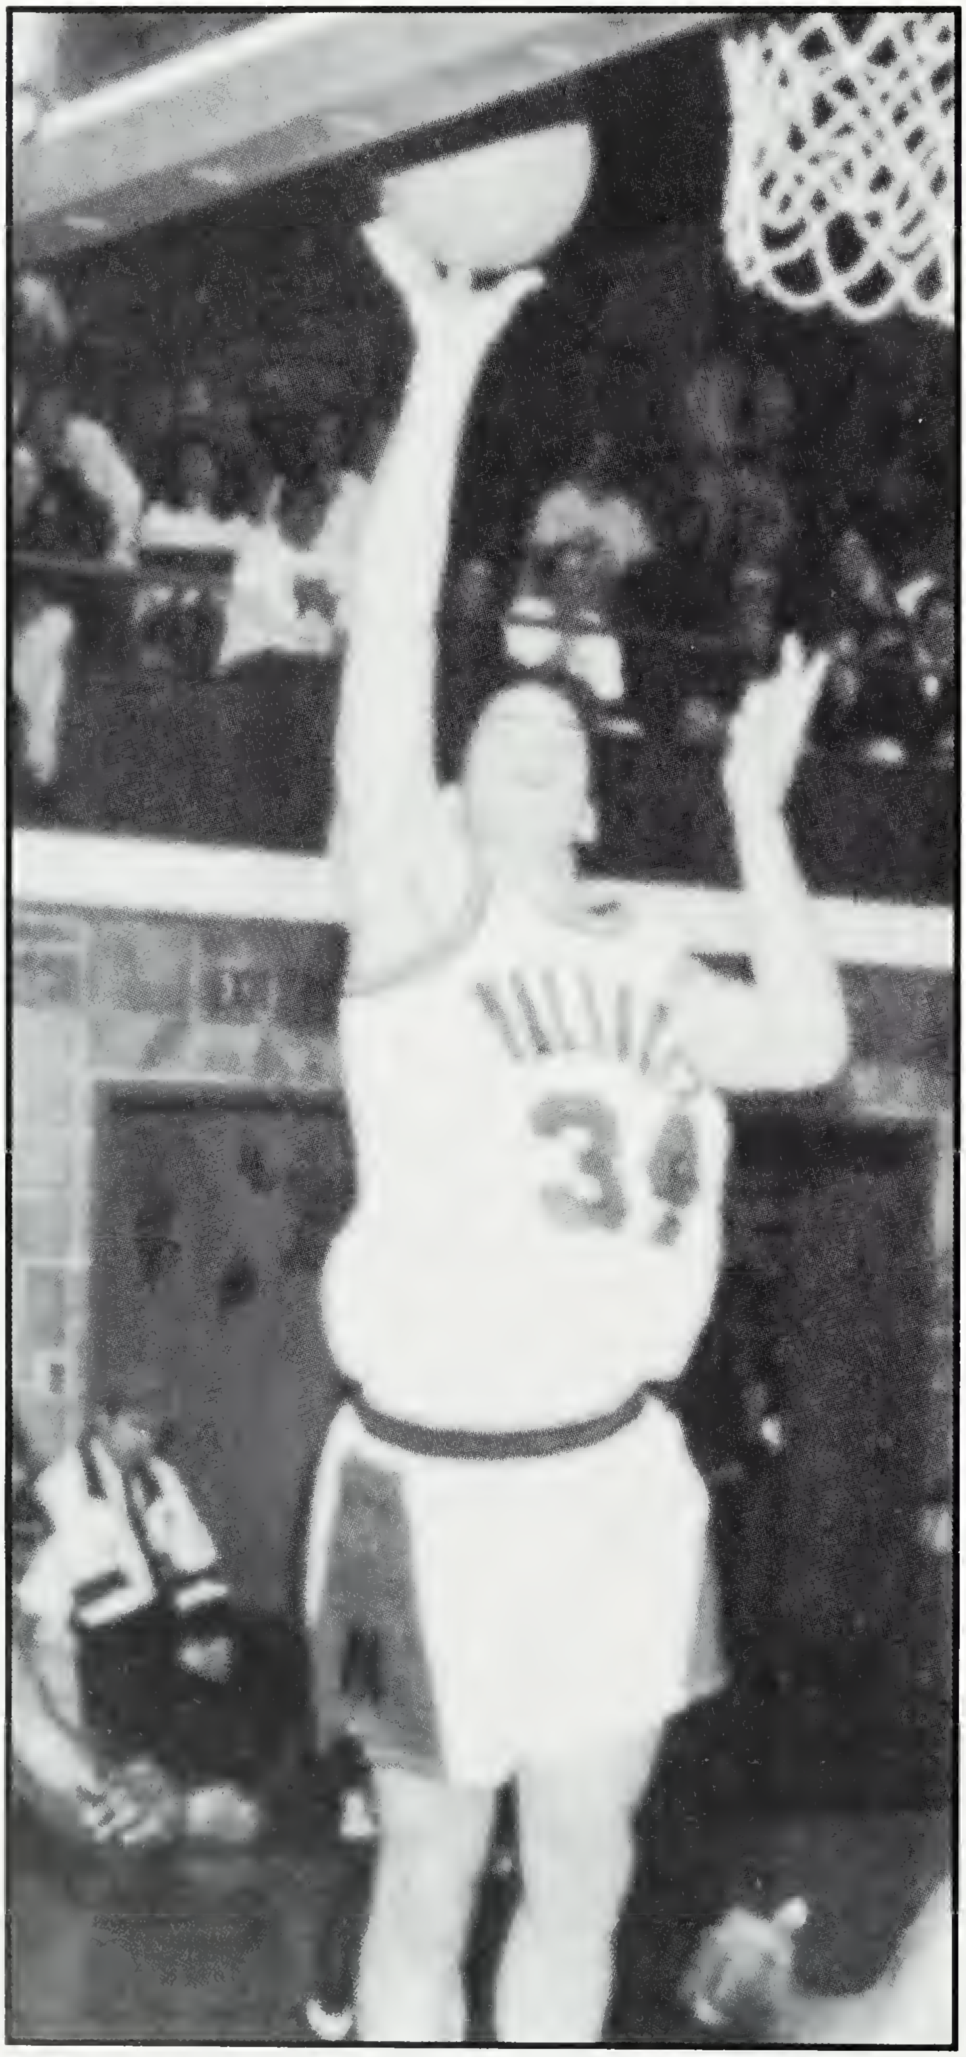
MEN'S BASKETBALL



With ten lettermen returning the Valiants look to challenge the powers that be in the Skyline Athletic Conference. But the task will not be easy; three teams from the conference were selected for the NCAA Championship Tournament last year. Nonetheless, a talented blend of youth and experienced veterans is poised for a strong outing.

Leading the Valiants will be the play of Al Viafore. The team's top returning scorer from a year ago with 14.6 points per game, his 212 rebounds (8.8 rpg) led the team. He dominates the low post, and will be the team's leader. Chris Drosopoulos, now in his final season, looks for more time to improve on his 2.4 points and 1.7 rebounds. A pair of sophomores, Joe Joyce and Desmond Rhoomes, saw plenty of time and several starts, and the year of experience will help both players. Marcellus Miglior-anze started half the team's games, and his edication and hustle will be an inspiration.

In the backcourt, senior Ed O'Malley led he team in assists last year at the point uard, and he should do so again. Malcolm ord returns after an injury shortened freshman season and his 9.9 points per game re supplemented by his shooting percentage (over 37 percent). Not afraid to shoot rom outside, he is a true triple-threat. Charie Ferrera, Gregg Reidy, and Sal Dispenza ll saw limited time last year, and are ready o produce when called upon.

Several newcomers have the ability to nake an immediate impact. Freshman hris Slattery and transfer Osei Mevs will elp at the guard positions, while Clayton arle and three transfers, Gene Baldenko nd Terence Shaw from Kingsborough .C., and Greg Rollins from Loyola (Md.) ollege will see time in the frontcourt.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

With a group of versatile and talented players, everyone is anticipating a strong season from the Women's Basketball team. Under the capable hands of senior captain and four year player Jeannette Anniccharico, the team will look to return to the HVWAC Tournament this year. Anniccharico is ready to fire up the three or play down in the paint, with junior Tammy McGurk leading the backcourt. McGurk, an All-Conference selection in the 1994-95 season, is hoping to use her two years of experience for greater success this year. The Valiants will look to Sophomore transfer Noel Foster to run the offense, filling the point guard slot. Other returning players include: Tara Mackay, Kalen Tubridy, Lib McCaffrey, and Brigid Horan. New to the team this year are Denise Strehle and Jaime Kriksciun. Lisa Graf is returning in her fourth season as Head Coach. She'll be assisted by Arthur Smith, Julie Mike, and Cindy Moser who has just joined the already strong coaching staff. Moser comes to Manhattanville from WPI (Worcester, MA) where she played basketball for four years.

Under the strong leadership of senior captain and four year swimmer Kim Moncada, the Valiant Swimmers are looking forward to an exciting season. Moncada and junior Keri Sommer were both All-Metropolitan Swimmers, with Moncada as team MVP and Sommer being the team's Most Outstanding Swimmer last year. With juniors Eileen Daly and Susan Napoli returning for their second seasons, they have experience to add in the breaststroke and the backstroke respectively. New additions to the team include junior Christina Svoboda, who should serve as an asset in short distance freestyle events; junior transfer Lorena Finnell; and the sole freshman, Amanda Franco. This small but experienced team is under the confident leadership of Head Coach John Collins, in his 22nd year at Manhattanville and a three time All-American butterflier at the University of Indiana; former University of Miami Hurricanes swimmer. New additions to the Valiants coaching staff are Chris O'Sullivan, who swam for the University of South Carolina Gamecocks during his collegiate days, and Sheila M. Dear Kelly,

We were thinking of this very special moment in your life and if Mom ad Dad were to measure success by the number of lives that you have touched or by the way you have reached out to others to truly make a difference, then it's hard to imagine a richer life then yours.

Tomorrow glows with the promise of joys yet to come, for if anyone deserves the best..it's you!

Love always,
